

Giving Back Program

First National Bank is committed to giving back to our communities through the charitable giving of financial support and volunteer hours. Each year, First National Bank employees log countless hours in support of various events and organizations. Like you, we live and work in this community and care about the welfare of both its resources and people.

Donations/Sponsorship Guidelines

First National Bank designates contributions to 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(6) organizations only within the communities we serve. Preference will be given to organizations in which bank employees and directors are involved as volunteers, officers, and board members. Previous and/or current year contributions are not a guarantee of future commitment. We require a minimum of 60 days for review. Funding decisions are made without discrimination on the basis of race, gender, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation or national origin.

The bank supports organizations in six broad categories:

- Affordable Housing
- Arts & Entertainment
- Economic Development
- Education & Youth
- Environment
- Health & Human Services

Funding Restrictions

First National Bank's Giving Back Program does not support requests for organizations that further religious or political doctrines, personal financial aid such as travel expenses, or sponsorship of individuals or teams for specific events or programs..
