

Twelve Months to Financial Clarity

The Power of a Purse

Does your drool reflex pop into action when you find a gorgeous handbag? Sure, purses are the perfect pick-me-up. They can make old outfits look good, and good outfits look even better. But does your purse reflect who you really are? On her program years ago, Oprah discussed what she believed to be true: the more organized a woman's purse, the more organized her financial life (home life, work life, etc.). Oprah went into the audience and looked in women's purses (those who would let her) and found all sorts of things...things that a woman might need to stay in control. One woman in the audience said that her family criticizes her purse, but they're all contributors. Dumping her purse in her lap (Would you do that on TV?), she found a daughter's brush, husband's business card holder and a grandchild's sunglasses. Another

Women's Series

Hats 'N History (Women's Series)

1:00 – 3:00 p.m., Wednesday, June 9, 2010

The Egg & I

3830 West 10th Street, Greeley

Entertaining and informative, this program showcases Ms. Cassell's collection of hats that spans a century of art form, style and function. Author and local historian, Colleen (Estes) Cassell will treat us to an afternoon of fun and hat history. She will model and describe a number of hats from her collection of over 600. Learn about hats dated from 1860 to 1960, "when women stopped wearing them," says Colleen. There is no charge for this event, but reservations are requested for limited seating. Please RSVP by Tuesday, June 1st to Jo Nell Lynd at 970.495.9353 or e-mail jlynd@1stnationalbank.com.

Amazing in Aging

1:00 – 4:00 p.m., Friday, June 25, 2010

Fort Collins Hilton

425 West Prospect, Fort Collins

Enjoy an afternoon of entertainment and fun sponsored by the Aspen Club at Poudre Valley Hospital System. One of northern Colorado's premier swing bands, Swing Essence will have you tapping your toes to the classics of Frank Sinatra, Glen Miller, Duke Ellington and more. You'll have time to visit the many booths featuring PVHS services and Aspen Club Community Partners, and the Keynote Speaker, Todd Musselman, will share his unique blend of music, stories and humor to help celebrate healthy aging...and having fun along the way. Registrations are requested. Please RSVP to the Aspen Club by calling 970.495.8560. A small fee for this event is due upon registration. We hope to see you there!

The Power of a Purse

woman decided that her purse did, in fact, give an impression of who she was: busy, creative, disorganized and cluttered, but she wouldn't let Oprah take a look. Does your back ache and your shoulders cramp from the weight of your purse? Is it a deep, dark hole from which you can never find anything? Perhaps it's time for a spring cleaning. Once it's ready for TV, wear it like an award for good taste. Give me a call if you decide to go shopping for a new purse this spring. Maybe I could go with you.
