

Q A. How do I change my AutoPay option?
To change your option or your Partial Payment dollar amount, just call us at 1-800-688-7070 or send us a note explaining the change you want. Requests must be received three business days prior to your payment due date (refer to the address under the "Remember" section).

Q A. Can I suspend or cancel my AutoPay service?

Yes. To suspend your AutoPay payment for one month (and make your payment yourself) or to cancel your AutoPay service, just call us at 1-800-688-7070 or send us a note with your request. Requests must be received three business days prior to your payment due date (refer to the address under the "Remember" section).

Q A. What if I need to change the checking or savings account I use for AutoPay?

To change your account information, just call us at 1-800-688-7070 or send us a note with your request, along with a voided check from your new checking or savings account (refer to the address under the "Remember" section). Requests must be received three business days prior to your payment due date.

Q A. When should I sign up?
Right now! The sooner you are on AutoPay, the sooner you'll start enjoying the benefits.

Important:

Mail us the form on the reverse side – along with your voided check today!

Retain for your records

On _____ (date), I authorized First Bankcard[†] to initiate debit entries to my checking or savings account as indicated above. Debits will be processed on the payment due date of my statement (if your payment due date falls on a weekend or holiday, your payment will be debited from your checking or savings account on the next business day). If I exceed my credit limit, I understand the entire amount I am over limit will be deducted. This authority is to remain in effect until First Bankcard receives written or verbal notification from me terminating this agreement. (Notice of termination will not be effective until First Bankcard has a reasonable opportunity, at least three business days, to act on it.)

The payment alternative I selected was:

- Full Pay my credit card account statement balance in full each month.
- Minimum * Pay the minimum amount due on my credit card account each month.
- Partial * Pay $ _____ or the minimum amount due (whichever is greater) on my credit card account each month.

*If you have exceeded your credit limit, the entire amount you are overlimit will be deducted. The minimum payment also includes any past due amount.

Remember:

 To sign up for AutoPay you must:

- 1) Complete the attached enrollment form in full.
- 2) Include a voided check from your checking or savings account.
- 3) Detach form and mail to:

Pay your Visa® Card and MasterCard® bill automatically with AutoPay. . .

When you sign up for AutoPay, scheduled monthly payments can be deducted from a checking or savings account to pay all of your accounts. There are no fees involved with AutoPay and you can even save yourself time and postage expense.

Here are some answers to questions you may have:

How does AutoPay work?

Instead of sending us a check every month, you authorize us to deduct payments directly from your checking or savings account.

How much will AutoPay cost me?

There are no fees with AutoPay. In fact, AutoPay will save you money . . . in postage, in check charges and in late fees.

Is it a lot of trouble to sign up?

No. Just complete and send us the attached enrollment form and attach a voided check from your checking or savings account. That's all there is to it!

How much do I pay each month?

- You choose from three payment options:
- The minimum payment due – as shown on your monthly statements. (Additionally, the minimum payment includes any past due amount and any amount over your assigned credit limit).
 - A partial payment – a set dollar amount you choose, (or less if total balance due is less than your set dollar amount . . . or more if your minimum due is more than your set dollar amount).
 - Payment in full – the new balance showing on your monthly statement.

When are my AutoPay payments made?

Your AutoPay payment is submitted to your checking or savings account on your payment due date. If your payment due date falls on a weekend or holiday, your payment will be debited from your checking or savings account on the next business day.

Can I make additional payments while on AutoPay?

Yes, however this may affect the amount deducted from your AutoPay payment amount.

How will I know when my account is on AutoPay?

A message will appear on your credit card statement indicating you are set up for AutoPay. Continue to make your normal payments until then.
